TRAIN THE TRAINER COURSE

RESIDENT: N/A

MOBILE: P273013/P309103

CERTIFICATION: PME

This course aims to improve trainers' skills to develop tactical-level staff and field training exercises based on peacekeeping mission mandates and essential and implied tasks. The Peacekeeping Train-the-Trainers (T3) course meets current standards of performance established by the United Nations (UN) and includes best practices from training conducted by other nations involved in peacekeeping operations.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Identify major issues in modern peace support operations
- ◆ Understand the United Nations' (UN) role in peacekeeping operations (PKO), education, and training
- ◆ Define common United Nations (UN) peacekeeping tasks
- ◆ Identify training needs and define training objectives
- ◆ Use processes and products to develop objective-driven training lanes
- ◆ Effectively employ role players to enhance training outcomes

TOPICS

This course enhances nations' capacities to engage in peacekeeping by developing internal peacekeeping training capabilities of national training institutions and increasing the number of qualified training officers available to support UN peacekeeping missions. This course leads participants through an analytical progression model of analyzing mandates, identifying relevant tasks, and developing training exercises. The course methodology includes presentations from subject matter experts (SME), group and plenary discussions, and classroom exercises. Course topics may include:

- ◆ Training exercise design principles
- ◆ Training objectives development: top-down mission analysis
- ◆ Tactical operations in United Nations Peacekeeping Operations (UNPKO) and lane design
- ◆ Role player utilization and scripting
- ◆ Training safety plans, exercise control, and logistics issues
- ◆ Developing evaluations and conducting after-action reviews

PARTICIPANTS

This course is ideally suited for junior- to mid-level officers and their civilian equivalents. Previous peacekeeping experience is desirable and preference is given to nominees with training responsibility and officers serving with units earmarked for peacekeeping operations (PKO) deployment. Optimum course size is 30 participants.

ISG PROGRAM AREAS

ISG programming has been developed over 25 years by providing military and civilian officials with unique education and professional development programs. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues, foster peer-to-peer learning, and build international communities of interest.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and American and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the US Government security cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant US Embassy's security/military cooperation office for selection processes and enrollment. Interested US citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs (International Military Education and Training, Foreign Military Sales, Peacekeeping Operations) and various Title 10 authorized programs such as the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Combating Terrorism and Irregular Warfare Fellowship Program (RDFFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Defense Security Cooperation University's Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is the Department of Defense's leading implementer for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) and one of its primary International Schoolhouses. As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency, ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.
