PEACE & SECURITY

MARITIME SECURITY (MARSEC)

BUILDING INSTITUTIONAL CAPACITY IN THE MARITIME SECURITY SECTOR

P471927

This virtual offering is designed to assist those individuals and organizations responsible for their nation's maritime security sector. The course will cover various threats to maritime security, from piracy and armed robbery at sea, smuggling and trafficking of drugs, arms and people, to cyber attacks against maritime infrastructure. The course will emphasize the detection and monitoring of suspect vessels in the nation's Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ), territorial seas and inland waterways, and appropriate responses. It is tailored to meet the needs of operational forces, decision makers at all levels, and regional security organizations. The intended audience is mid-to senior-level military (Navy and Coast Guard O-4 to O-8), or civilian and law enforcement officials from various ministries and government organizations with maritime security responsibilities such as Defense, Interior, Fisheries, and Foreign Affairs.

DATES: 6-10 Jun 2022 Global (conducted in English & Spanish)

TUITION: $3,400

VIRTUAL INSTRUCTION

These activities will be executed on a virtual learning platform, so while there is no travel, participants will need to have access to a computer and an Internet connection for the duration of the event. Each course will include synchronous/"live" virtual instruction for approximately 4-6 hours each day, with some asynchronous course work to be completed outside these hours. Multilateral seminars are conducted in English, unless otherwise indicated. Bilateral virtual courses are available upon request.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and American and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

PROGRAMMING

Programming should be requested through your applicable NETSAFA Country Program Manager. Each country may request up to five quotas per course iteration. Additional seats may be available upon request.

FUNDING

ISG can accept most types of US Government funding. Courses are typically funded by IMET, FMF, FMS, CTIWFP/RDFP, PKO, and other DoD-wide O&M funds (333, 332, MSI, etc.). Cost estimates can be obtained by contacting ISG or the applicable NETSAFA Country Program Manager.
