

INSTITUTE FOR SECURITY GOVERNANCE

Advancing Knowledge, Building Capacity, Strengthening Partners

STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP

RESIDENT: N/A
MOBILE: P309116

ELIGIBLE FUNDING: IMET, FMF/FMS
CERTIFICATION: PME, E-IMET

This course explores the broad theme of strategic leadership and is designed for. The program is designed for personnel who are engaged in or will become engaged in leadership of large, complex organizations within their government/nation.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Articulate fundamental concepts related to strategic leadership
- ◆ Differentiate between leadership and management
- ◆ Identify leadership, communication, and conflict styles and how they impact organizational effectiveness
- ◆ Develop approaches for managing distinct communication styles evident in group work
- ◆ Develop professional networks to address shared security interests
- ◆ Understand the challenges and opportunities associated with strategic leadership, strategic planning, and strategic decision-making

TOPICS

This course uses expert presentations, self-awareness activities, and small-group exercises to equip participants with the skills needed to be strategic leaders, act as agents of change within their institutions, and address national security challenges. Course topics may include:

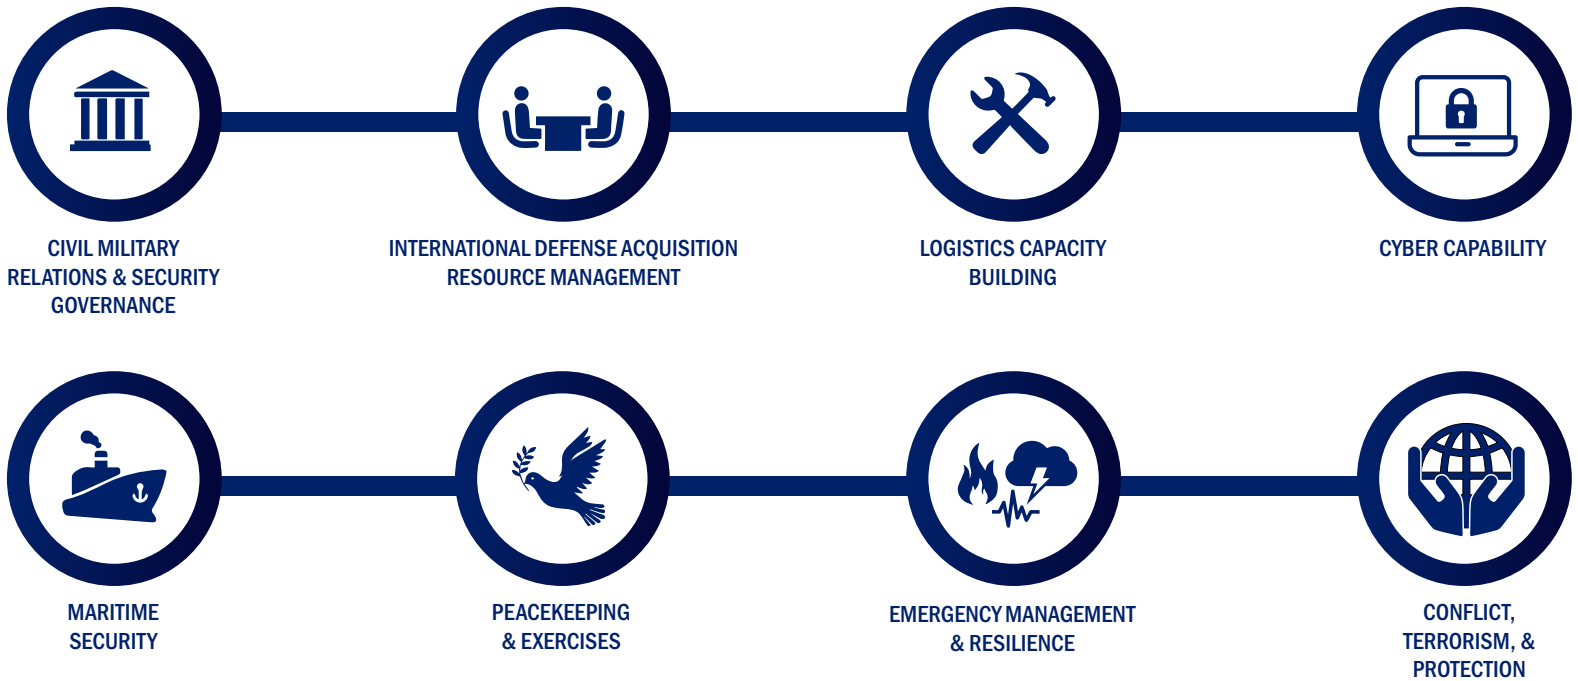

- ◆ Civil-military relations and democratically elected civilian control of the armed forces
- ◆ Military professionalism and institutional leadership
- ◆ Leadership, communication, and conflict styles
- ◆ Leadership and team effectiveness
- ◆ Strategic communications and public information

PARTICIPANTS

Offices of Defense Cooperation and Security Assistance Organizations are asked to draw participation from the widest possible spectrum of military and civilian officials in mid- to senior-level positions. Female participants are strongly encouraged to attend. Religious leaders and senior representatives from other civil-society groups are also welcome participants.

ISG PROGRAM AREAS

ISG programming has been developed over 25 years by providing military and civilian officials with unique education and professional development programs. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues, foster peer-to-peer learning, and build connected networks of international peers through a professional learning environment.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and American and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the US Government security cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant US Embassy's security/military cooperation section for selection processes and enrollment. Interested US citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs (International Military Education and Training, Foreign Military Sales, Peacekeeping Operations) and various Title 10 authorized programs such as the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Combating Terrorism and Irregular Warfare Fellowship Program (RDFFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Institute for Security Governance – situated within the Defense Security Cooperation University's (DSCU) International School of Education and Advising (ISEA) – is the Department of Defense's Center of Excellence for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB). As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), and one of its primary international Security Cooperation schoolhouses, ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.