ELIGIBLE FUNDING: IMET, FMF/FMS
CERTIFICATION: PME, (E-IMET PENDING)

This course is for nations that are interested in designing effective cyber strategies consistent with their national security strategy and their organization's mission/vision. The course can be tailored for partners who request assistance in drafting and revising cyber strategy.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Understand military doctrine and cyber strategy
- ◆ Know the laws, regulations, and policies that relate to cybersecurity
- ◆ Explain and apply strategic design theory and practice
- ◆ Be familiar with the operational impacts of cybersecurity lapses
- ◆ Understand cyber workforce development
- ◆ Use capabilities in developing cyber strategy aligned with operational environment and national security priorities

TOPICS

The delivery format combines lectures and practical frameworks. A strategic design component allows participants to identify and implement aspects of a comprehensive approach for designing a cyber strategy. Course topics may include:

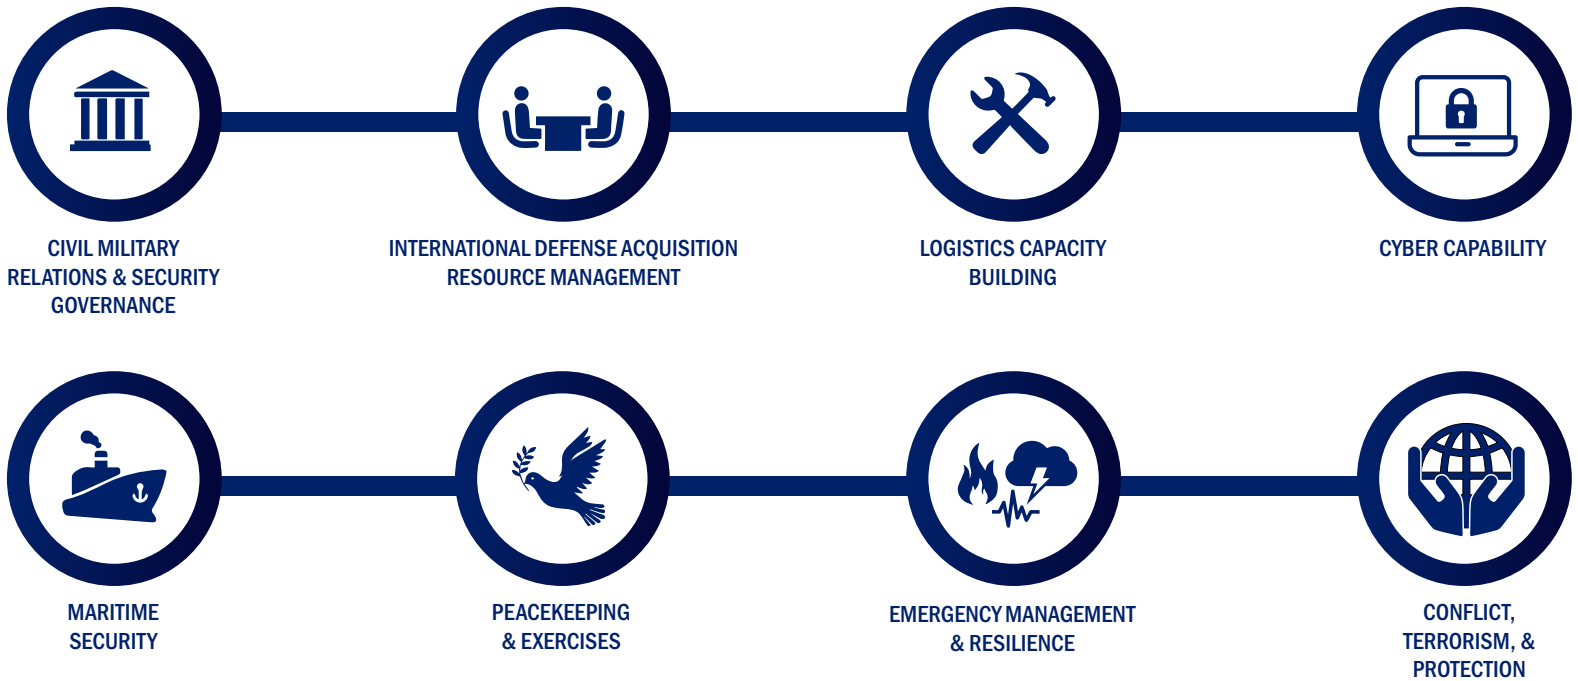

- ◆ Cyber law, regulation, and policy
- ◆ Strategic design theory
- ◆ Cyber threats and vulnerabilities
- ◆ Cyber workforce development
- ◆ Cyber strategy frameworks
- ◆ Cyber deterrence

PARTICIPANTS

The course is designed for senior international officials from ministries of defense, foreign affairs, and communications. Public and private sector representatives responsible for cyber are welcome to attend.

ISG PROGRAM AREAS

ISG programming has been developed over 25 years by providing military and civilian officials with unique education and professional development programs. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues, foster peer-to-peer learning, and build international communities of interest.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and American and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the US Government security cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant US Embassy's security/military cooperation office for selection processes and enrollment. Interested US citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs (International Military Education and Training, Foreign Military Sales, Peacekeeping Operations) and various Title 10 authorized programs such as the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Combating Terrorism and Irregular Warfare Fellowship Program (RDFFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Institute for Security Governance – situated within the Defense Security Cooperation University's (DSCU) International School of Education and Advising (ISEA) – is the Department of Defense's Center of Excellence for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB). As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), and one of its primary international Security Cooperation schoolhouses, ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.
