SCOPING SURVEY

RESIDENT: N/A
MOBILE: P309073

ELIGIBLE FUNDING: IMET, FMF/FMS
CERTIFICATION: N/A

In cases where the Institute for Security Governance (ISG) has not conducted a program, or when the content for an upcoming course must be reshaped in person, it is often advisable to conduct a scoping visit, commonly called a site survey. During a scoping visit, the Mobile Education & Training (MET) team leader and/or an ISG staff member will travel to the host country to meet with embassy officers and key local officials. Pre-course site surveys usually last two or three working days. Such visits will be scheduled at the discretion of ISG and the Office of Defense Cooperation (ODC), and financed from money programmed under this MASL.

OBJECTIVES

- ◆ Refine understanding of the host nation's priorities and procedures
- ◆ Establish relationships with embassy officers and key local officials in order to identify future course objectives and curriculum goals

TOPICS & PARTICIPANTS

The target audience is embassy officers and key local officials with portfolios related to future courses.

ISG PROGRAM AREAS

ISG programming has been developed over 25 years by providing military and civilian officials with unique education and professional development programs. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues, foster peer-to-peer learning, and build connected networks of international peers through a professional learning environment.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and American and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted with partner nations as part of the US Government security cooperation effort. Participation in ISG courses is managed through the Security Cooperation Office of the US Embassy in-country. Interested partner nation personnel should work through their government’s international cooperation section, or the relevant US Embassy’s security/military cooperation section for selection processes and enrollment. Where appropriate, ISG reserves limited space in courses for US citizens. Interested US citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

ISG can accept most types of US Government funding. Courses are typically funded by IMET, FMF, FMS, CTIWWP/RDFP, PKO, and other DoD-wide O&M funds (333, 332, MSI, etc.). Cost estimates can be obtained by contacting ISG or the applicable NETSAFA Country Program Manager.

ABOUT ISG

The Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is a Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA) schoolhouse, and leading Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) implementer, focused on helping partners build effective and accountable security institutions. ISG’s tailored ICB approach supports partners in developing, resourcing, and sustaining the institutional capabilities and professionalization necessary to pursue common security cooperation objectives.
