This course provides an opportunity to better comprehend and apply logistics management concepts and principles to build and strengthen partner nations' (PN) institutional logistics capacity. It examines a variety of logistics subject areas using a combination of homework and classroom learning.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Comprehend logistics management concepts and principles
- ◆ Apply comprehensive logistics management concepts and principles to specific PN needs

TOPICS

Using a combination of case study presentations, lectures, small-group exercises/activities, and structured discussions, this course examines, among others, the following general and specific topics:

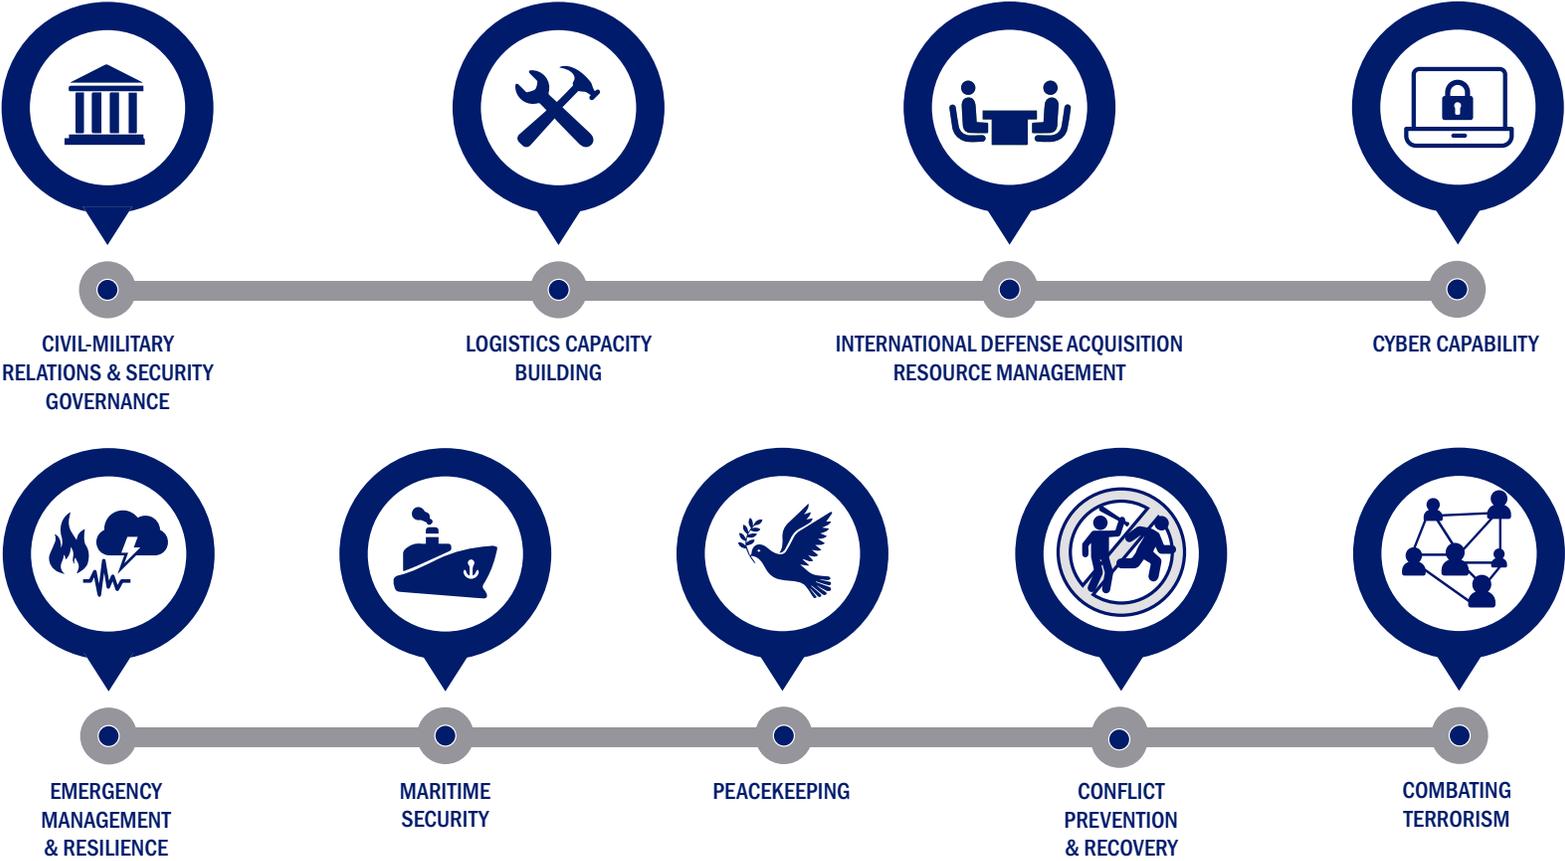

- ◆ Logistics governance and operational planning
- ◆ Distribution and transportation management
- ◆ Logistics services
- ◆ Supply chain materiel management
- ◆ Maintenance
- ◆ Health services support

PARTICIPANTS

The course is designed for international military officers at the O-5 to O-6 grade levels and civilian equivalents working in higher-level logistics positions related to national security governance, such as security force executive, ministerial, or service staffs. The minimum enrollment for this course is 12 students and the maximum is 24.

ISG PROGRAM AREAS

ISG programming has been developed over 25 years by providing military and civilian officials with unique education and professional development programs. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues, foster peer-to-peer learning, and build connected networks of international peers through a professional learning environment.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and American and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted with partner nations as part of the US Government security cooperation effort. Participation in ISG courses is managed through the Security Cooperation Office of the US Embassy in-country. Interested partner nation personnel should work through their government’s international cooperation section, or the relevant US Embassy’s security/military cooperation section for selection processes and enrollment. Where appropriate, ISG reserves limited space in courses for US citizens. Interested US citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

ISG can accept most types of US Government funding. Courses are typically funded by IMET, FMF, FMS, CTIWWP/RDFP, PKO, and other DoD-wide O&M funds (333, 332, MSI, etc.). Cost estimates can be obtained by contacting ISG or the applicable NETSAFA Country Program Manager.

ABOUT ISG

The Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is a Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA) schoolhouse, and leading Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) implementer, focused on helping partners build effective and accountable security institutions. ISG’s tailored ICB approach supports partners in developing, resourcing, and sustaining the institutional capabilities and professionalization necessary to pursue common security cooperation objectives.
