CAPSTONE EXERCISE

RESIDENT: N/A

MOBILE: P279010/P309459

CERTIFICATION: PME

The Peacekeeping Capstone Exercise course concludes peacekeeping capacity building exercises, as conducted by the Institute for Security Governance (ISG), which may consist of a staff training event (STE) and/or a field training event (FTE). Typically, this course requires one or more supporting Peacekeeping Train-the-Trainer courses to assist partners to design training activities and to prepare host nation and partner instructors to implement the course.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Enhance their understanding of the multidimensional aspects of complex contingencies and peace operations
- ◆ Discuss major challenges in modern peacekeeping missions to identify opportunities for improved performance
- ◆ Identify actions and recommendations that address gaps in training to improve mission performance and readiness
- ◆ Plan and conduct a peacekeeping operations (PKO) exercise as a staff training exercise and/or field training exercise
- ◆ Develop peacekeeping operations (PKO) training lanes and instructors
- ◆ Effectively prepare and employ role players in a training exercise

TOPICS

The Peacekeeping Capstone Exercise course combines multinational peacekeeping training development and execution. The course can be adapted to a wide range of peacekeeping missions, tasks, and objectives. This course is typically implemented in succession with one or more Peacekeeping Train-the-Trainer courses. Course topics may include:

- ◆ Scenario-driven United Nations Operations Staff Training Exercise
- ◆ Rotating field training (FT) lanes
- ◆ Rotating staff training (ST) lanes
- ◆ Senior leadership seminar

PARTICIPANTS

This course is ideally suited for multinational leaders, staff officers, trainers, and deploying peacekeepers at operational and tactical levels.

ISG PROGRAM AREAS

ISG programming has been developed over 25 years by providing military and civilian officials with unique education and professional development programs. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues, foster peer-to-peer learning, and build international communities of interest.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and American and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the US Government security cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant US Embassy's security/military cooperation office for selection processes and enrollment. Interested US citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs (International Military Education and Training, Foreign Military Sales, Peacekeeping Operations) and various Title 10 authorized programs such as the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Combating Terrorism and Irregular Warfare Fellowship Program (RDFFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Defense Security Cooperation University's Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is the Department of Defense's leading implementer for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) and one of its primary International Schoolhouses. As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency, ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.
