ELIGIBLE FUNDING: IMET, FMF/FMS

CERTIFICATION: PME

The Institute for Security Governance (ISG) Executive Course for National Peacekeeping Planning (ECNPP) develops participants' understanding of the key analysis processes that should inform national decision-makers to ensure that political commitments and military deployments to UN peacekeeping are adequately planned, directed, and resourced.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Recognize the strategic value of contribution to UN peacekeeping and its linkage to national defense strategy and planning
- ◆ Discuss current peacekeeping mandates and tasks relevant to the military, police, and other mission components
- ◆ Understand UN strategic- and operational-level Integrated Assessment and Planning processes
- ◆ Identify the peacekeeping mission life cycle, logistic support concept, and reimbursement framework
- ◆ Understand the Force Generation process and the UN Uniformed Capabilities Management System
- ◆ Identify the Peacekeeping Capability Readiness System (PCRS) and the performance evaluation mechanism

TOPICS

The goal of this training is to improve the ability of national armed forces to participate in UN peacekeeping operations (PKO) in order to resolve international crises. The training methodology includes presentations from subject matter experts in conjunction with group discussions, plenary discussions, and classroom exercises. Group discussions and exercises focus on problem-solving in fictitious peacekeeping operation scenarios or standalone problems related to various aspects of PKO.

Course topics may include:

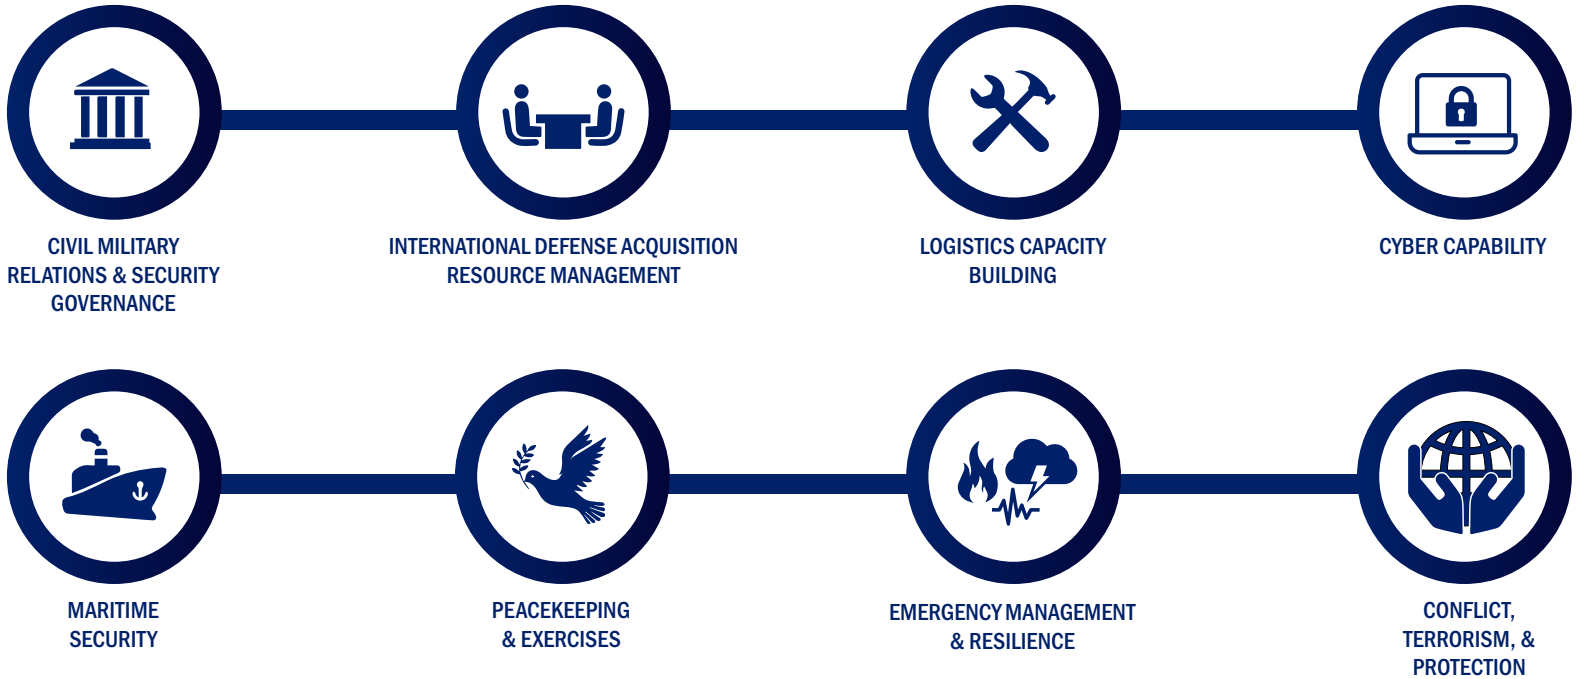

- ◆ Operational environment: threats, trends, and robust capabilities
- ◆ Legal framework for UN engagement
- ◆ Link between National Defense Strategy and PKO planning
- ◆ Mission life cycle, force design, and support concept
- ◆ Force generation process
- ◆ Reimbursement and contingent-owned equipment methodology

PARTICIPANTS

Participant rank or grade should be O-7 to O-8 or the civilian equivalent. The course targets senior police, military, and civilian personnel responsible for advising political leadership on UN peacekeeping issues, including national commitments to deploy, and those personnel engaged with the planning, deployment, and oversight of national contributions to UN peacekeeping.

ISG PROGRAM AREAS

ISG programming has been developed over 25 years by providing military and civilian officials with unique education and professional development programs. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues, foster peer-to-peer learning, and build connected networks of international peers through a professional learning environment.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and American and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the US Government security cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant US Embassy's security/military cooperation section for selection processes and enrollment. Interested US citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs (International Military Education and Training, Foreign Military Sales, Peacekeeping Operations) and various Title 10 authorized programs such as the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Combating Terrorism and Irregular Warfare Fellowship Program (RDFFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Institute for Security Governance – situated within the Defense Security Cooperation University's (DSCU) International School of Education and Advising (ISEA) – is the Department of Defense's Center of Excellence for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB). As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), and one of its primary international Security Cooperation schoolhouses, ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.
