UNITED NATIONS PEACEKEEPING OPERATIONS INSTRUCTOR COURSE

RESIDENT: N/A

MOBILE: P279392/P309392

ELIGIBLE FUNDING: IMET, FMF/FMS

CERTIFICATION: PME

The aim of the course is to enhance peacekeeping trainers' knowledge base and instructor skills in the essential topics of United Nations (UN) peacekeeping (PKO). Upon completion of the course, participants will be well versed in UN issues, and will have the ability to directly train other peacekeeping instructors, or unit personnel, on UN policies and procedures.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Understand the key "Core Pre-deployment Training Modules" issued by the UN Integrated Training Service/Departments
- ◆ Demonstrate knowledge of instructor/peacekeeping trainer skills in UN peacekeeping essential topics
- ◆ Understand the characteristics and complexities of integrated UN missions
- ◆ Articulate UN issues in general
- ◆ Train other peacekeeping instructors on UN policies and procedures

TOPICS

The training methodology includes presentations from subject matter experts (SMEs) in conjunction with group and plenary discussions and classroom exercises. Group discussions and exercises will focus on problem-solving various aspects of PKO. Course topics may include:

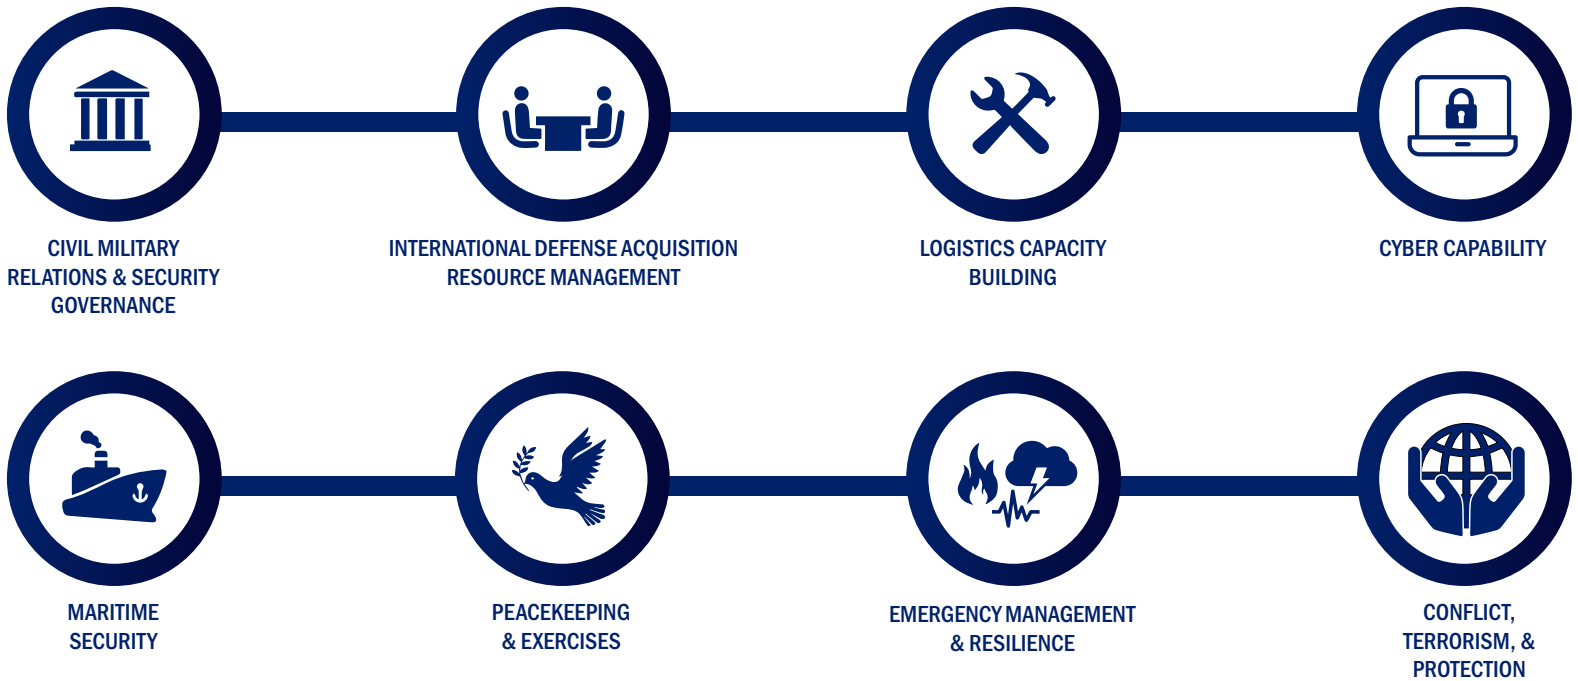

- ◆ UN guidelines: PKO training
- ◆ US Government directives, contingency operations (CONOPS), rules of engagement (ROE), and operational estimates
- ◆ UN logistics
- ◆ Use of force and adapting ROE
- ◆ Transitions and measures of effectiveness (MoE)
- ◆ Developing exercises

PARTICIPANTS

This course is ideally suited for junior- to mid-level officers or civilian equivalents.

ISG PROGRAM AREAS

ISG programming has been developed over 25 years by providing military and civilian officials with unique education and professional development programs. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues, foster peer-to-peer learning, and build connected networks of international peers through a professional learning environment.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and American and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the US Government security cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant US Embassy's security/military cooperation section for selection processes and enrollment. Interested US citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs (International Military Education and Training, Foreign Military Sales, Peacekeeping Operations) and various Title 10 authorized programs such as the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Combating Terrorism and Irregular Warfare Fellowship Program (RDFFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Institute for Security Governance – situated within the Defense Security Cooperation University's (DSCU) International School of Education and Advising (ISEA) – is the Department of Defense's Center of Excellence for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB). As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), and one of its primary international Security Cooperation schoolhouses, ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.
